VOICES OF THE NIGHT.

Do you ever lie awake at night
And think—and think—and think
Of a hundred thousand foolish things
Which "hang round" midnight's brink?
And do you at the same time hear
The hoarse, guttural—gurg—
Of your stationary wasteland,
Like a laughing burglar's laugh—
While the latticed window shutters flap
The ashes (fall of pane)?
And the myriad voices of the night
Talk nonsense at your brain?
You don't! I do.

And the phoebic, gurgling, gurgling
And the melancholy, moaning,
Of that maddening, moaning,
Gurgling, gurgling water main,
Wrap an eerie, tree, icy, filiac,
Fairy sort of sound
In the meshes of the midnight,
Which entwines me round and round.
My flesh creeps all in heape.

Finally sleep;
While the melancholy moaning,
And the hungry, hollow gurgling
Of the stand,
Keep my slumberous soul a-swooning
Up and down a ragging, roaring
Nightmare land.
—"Joe" Kerr in Chicago Mail.

Bound to Be Natural.

"Hello, Plimley, last time I saw you you had only one eye. Now you've got two!" exclaimed Bulger.
"Yes, Bulger, I've just bought a celluloid eye."

"What did you do that for? Don't you know they're said to be dangerous?"
"Perhaps they are, but they are more natural than glass ones."
"In what respect?"
"Why, they'll snap occasionally. Just like real ones, you know."—Chicago Times.

Men.

"What's in a name?" asked Biggs, the other day, in the course of conversation.
"I guess your wife can tell you," said Boggs.
"What do you mean?"
"Why, everything you've got is in her name, isn't it?"—Puck.

St. Louis to Colorado via Wichita.

Commencing Sunday, July 13, 1890, the Missouri Pacific railway will run through sleeping cars from St. Louis via Pleasant Hill, Rich Hill, Fort Scott and Wichita to Geneseo and from thence to Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver. This change was made on account of a great many people from the east going to Colorado being desirous of going via Wichita. The train will stop here two hours, giving all a chance to view the "Powers of Nature" and still land passengers in Colorado same time as if they had gone via Kansas City. It also gives the citizens of Wichita sleeping car service from here to Colorado. Returning it gives us through sleeping car service Wichita to St. Louis, and gives the Colorado people a chance to go east via Wichita. This change will undoubtedly be appreciated by the traveling public and especially by the citizens of Wichita. If you are going east or west via the popular new through route. Through chair and sleeping car service. New route just completed between Fort Scott and Rich Hill goes through the finest mineral and agricultural country in the west.
